

I/A - LON Controller Operations and Programming

Target Group

This course is designed for those who have a basic understanding of I/A and interface tools and who require detailed controller / network setup and programming information.

Prerequisites

To attend this course a general knowledge of Building Automation is required.

Description

This course covers the hardware and software setup of I/A controllers and the use of LonMaker for Windows.

Representative Topics

- Review of controller hardware and LON architecture
- Setup of controllers including loading profiles and custom programming with Workplace Tech
- Setup of LON and binding of network variables using LonMaker for Windows

Duration of the Course

4.5 days