

DMS / MS – Controller Operations

Target Group

This class is designed for those who currently have DMS /MS equipment and need basic operational level instruction and experience.

Prerequisites

To attend this course practical HVAC experience is required. Building automation and computer experience would be advantageous.

Description

This course introduces the Digital Management System at the level of the area controller (DMS -350A and DMS -3500), the MicroSmart controllers, and the Network Control Module.

Representative Topics

- Network architecture
- DMS access and menu
- Panel functions: EMS and Scheduling
- Block functions
- MS access and menu
- Point linking between MS and DMS
- Global value sharing
- NCM access and menu
- OPRIF and DCT software

Duration of the Course

4.5 days