

DMS / MS – Controller Programming

Target Group

This course is designed for those who already have DMS / MS equipment and are familiar with basic operations but require full system programming experience.

Prerequisites

To attend this course basic operations level instruction and experience is required on DMS / MS equipment.

Description

This course covers the Digital Management System at the level of the area controller (DMS – 350A and DMS -3500), the MicroSmart Controllers, and the Network Control Module. Full programming of all functions is covered.

Representative Topics

- Communication setup for addition MicroSmart panels
- Point programming at the DMS and MicroSmart levels
- Setup of data sharing via global points
- Writing, editing, compiling, debugging, and running User Defined Programs
- Data trending
- Energy management function setup
- Backup / restoration of panel programming

Duration of the Course

4.5 days