

Signal Operations and Programming

Target Group

This course is designed for those that have NW8000 and have the Signal GUI.

Prerequisites

To attend this course some instructional or practical exposure to NW8000 is required. A basic knowledge of HVAC and building automation is advantageous.

Description

This course discusses the Windows based Signal graphic user interface for NW8000, DMS, and other automation systems. The range of Signal operational and programmable characteristics will be presented.

Representative Topics

- Signal Control Panel Menu
- Use of signal Graphics
- Setup and Override of Calendars
- Alarm Exception Handling
- Using and Modifying the Signal Project
- Terminal Access
- General Overrides
- Trending
- Generating Reports
- Windows Interface
- Backup

Duration of the Course

4.5 days